

Corporate Compliance eLearning for Healthcare from Elsevier

In the heavily regulated healthcare industry, compliance is a critical, enterprise-wide responsibility that requires knowledge and understanding of complex, technical rules that can carry severe penalties for non-adherence.

Elsevier can help provider organizations better manage this enormous task with the HCPro Corporate Compliance Training Online Learning Library.

This new offering explains regulations and their applicability by job role, addressing areas that include the False Claims Act, the Fraud Enforcement and Recovery Act of 2009, the Stark Law, the Anti-Kickback Statute, The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and The Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act, Red Flags Rule and Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act.

Courses are:

- Video-based scenarios show the “wrong way” and the “right way” to handle a situation, increasing student engagement.
- New design and audio narration offers different ways to navigate the course, so students proceed through interaction, not simple reading.
- A certificate of completion documents that employees successfully completed training.
